RE: International Rowing Panel Event: 24th November 17:30 (Zoom)

Dear Members,

On behalf of the University of Cambridge Alumni Association of Russia and the Russian Rowing Federation, I would like to cordially invite you to an international rowing panel event. The event aims to support international rowing and to share ideas.

Our plan is as follows:

- An open round-up discussion of the recent Tokyo Olympics challenges and successes during Covid-19. Addressing plans for Paris 2024.
- To discuss ways in which rowing and sport, in general, can support athletes in gaining vital post-career professional skills and education.
- An open Q&A session to conclude proceedings

Guests will include:

Aleksey Svirin (President of the Russian Rowing Federation and 2004 Olympic Gold Medalist)
Anton Zarutskiy (Vice President of the Russian Rowing Federation and 2016 Rio Olympian)
Anastasiya Lebedeva (2021 Tokyo Lightweight Double Sculls)
Andrey Potapkin (2021 Tokyo Double Sculls)
Hanna Prakaten (2021 Tokyo Silver Medalist Single Sculls)
Giovani Postiglione (Head Russian Olympic Coach)

Our guest organisations so far: Cambridge University Boat Club, Cambridge University Russian Society, Saudi Arabia Rowing...

I hope that you find the above content of interest, and we look forward to your attendance at our event.

Your sincerely

Mr. David Gloucester

Executive Committee member:
Cambridge University Alumni Russia
Special Advisor to the Russian Rowing Federation
