

Biographies of members standing for election to the committee – June 2025

JACK BEAUMONT

Jack started rowing aged 9 at Maidenhead Rowing Club. He joined Leander in 2012 feeling very inspired by the London Olympics and was captain for the years 2020 and 2021. He won Henley Royal Regatta 9 times (8 times for Leander) and finished his career with silver medal in the Tokyo Olympic Games in the men's quadruple sculls. Jack works as a Sales Manager for Invesco, a global asset management firm.

PETER O'HANLON

Peter started rowing at Canford School and later represented the University of the West of England. A full member of Leander since 2018, he lives in central Henley and is a regular presence at the club. He has been deeply involved in Henley's regatta scene for over 15 years, including as Chairman of Regatta Radio and a commentator at Henley Royal Regatta and the Boat Races. Since 2009, he has built an international career in rowing commentary, serving as the 'Voice of World Rowing' across Olympic, World, and European Championships — most recently at Tokyo 2020 and Paris 2024. Outside rowing, Peter is Strategic Change Director in Sustainability at HSBC, co-founder of Henley-on-Thames Triathlon Club, and an active member of the endurance sport community.
